

A(1) Expenses payments

If the employee paid expenses solely and necessarily in the performance of his or her duties and/or business travelling expenses and you repaid the amount of those expenses, you do not need to include them here. Total all other expenses payments including:

- payments that included Value Added Tax (VAT), even if the VAT was later recovered from HMRC
- round sum allowances
- all relocation expenses payments and benefits (see note below).

Some relocation expenses qualify for relief (see booklet 480). The maximum amount that can be paid for any one move is £8,000. You should total all the qualifying payments made for each move including:

- any payments made in 2014–15, and
- any benefits provided under the relocation package in 2015–16 or 2014–15.

The excess over £8,000 of any qualifying expenses payments and benefits for each move, should be included in the total expenses payments figure entered below.

If the above amounts total £25 or less they do not need to be included.

If more than £25 enter the total amount.

A(2) Any other payments or benefits

Include here:

- payments made to the employee and not included on the Employer Annual Return for 2015–16
- payments made on the employee's behalf
- gifts in kind – enter the second-hand value of any goods provided, that is, the price at which the employee could sell the items as soon as he or she got them as an individual not connected with the business

BVouchers and credit cards

Enter the expense of providing the vouchers, and the goods and services for which they can be exchanged.
(For qualifying childcare vouchers the excess over £55 per week.)

Exclude the value of any vouchers, such as cash vouchers, which have been taxed already under PAYE.

Travel and transport

Enter the expense of providing the vouchers, and the goods and services for which they can be exchanged.
(For qualifying childcare vouchers the excess over £55 per week.)

Exclude the value of any vouchers, such as cash vouchers, which have been taxed already under PAYE.

CAccommodation

Give the cash equivalent of accommodation provided for the employee and/or his or her family. Deduct any amounts paid by the employee towards the cost of providing the accommodation – for example, rent.

If the employee is provided with living accommodation give details of the rateable value. This is the gross value that applied before Community Charge was introduced. If the property does not have a gross value, enter 'No rateable value established' and give your estimate of what the gross value would have been if rates had continued. If the property is rented, add to the amount of rent and insurance payable by you any amount attributed to the period in respect of a lease premium. See booklet 480 Expenses and benefits for how to work out this amount. If the cost of the property, including improvements, is greater than £75,000 you will have to work out the additional yearly rent, see booklet 480 Expenses and benefits to arrive at the cash equivalent at box 14 below.

If, as well as providing the accommodation, you paid some of the employee's bills (such as heat and light), show these in the appropriate box or boxes overleaf, whether or not the value of the accommodation itself is exempt from tax.
